60-61. "But blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."

Jeremiah 17:7-8

My favorite verses are Jeremiah 17:7-8 with Jeremiah 17:7 being the one that is a single memory verse. This became my favorite Scripture passage in later adulthood after experiencing many difficult times when I became acutely aware of my need to trust only in the Lord and when I was blessed because of doing so. Life is fraught with challenges, disappointments, and "times of heat and drought" even for those who trust in the Lord. Trusting Him during such times can be difficult but eventually leads to blessings.

Jeremiah 17:7 is easier to memorize but becomes more meaningful in the context of being joined with Jeremiah 17:8. As I grow older (66) and memory issues become one of those life challenges, I generally can only recite Jeremiah 17:7 but I am aware of its significance in regard to the verse that follows it.

Romans 8:38-39

When I was in Jr. High, I went through a time that I felt that God was VERY far away. I felt unloved, my friends were beginning to make unwise decisions and I was really struggling with what I believed and how I should live. Then one day I read these verses in Romans and all of a sudden, I felt peace that I had not felt in a very long time and the love of God was very real and so these verses have been special to me ever since because NOTHING can separate me from the love of God.

Serving at Camp Merrill and in leadership at the local and state level. These help to build up the Kingdom of God in our world.”

Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns. For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. 358-369. Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them. The Beatitudes He said: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

370-375. Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night. That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither — whatever they do prospers. Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. For the Lord watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

376-377. Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.
